The M. & M. Rail Road.

We lastite attention to the brief communication of Mr. Bronstean in this morning, spaper. It is a treaf exhibit of the business done upon the M. 4. M. Rail Road during the past winter, and for delices another evidence of the importance of this road to our city and state, and of its productiveness as an investment. In a month or two it will be open to Madison, within the year to the Wisconsin river, and in the course of next year to the Mississippi. This last point attained, is carnings now, large though they are and pay at a handsome dividend on the cost of the work will seem but small rivulets when compared with the swelling tide which will then pour along this erest ertery of traffic and travel. We cannot forbear, in this connection, to renew our congratulations to the Directors of the Company upon the happy choice they made of an Logineer and Superintendent. Very much of the success of the road, its large proportion of net carnings, its fortunate exemption from accidents, and the order, method and care which distinguich its management, are due to Mr. BRODHEAD. He has labored resolutely, intelligently, and indefatigably in the service of the Company, and the fairly carned their grateful thanks, as well as the good opinion of the public.

The bonds of the M. & M. Rail Road Company are now among the best securities to be found in in West.

MIT WALLEY, HORICON AND BERLIN BAIL ROAD The Marquette Mercury publishes the notice of the letting of contracts on this Rail Road, and ampliments the officers of the Company very maily, for their energetic and successful efforts to toth this enterprize ahead.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTIMEL.

Madison, March 31 '54. My letter closed last evening, leaving the Anti-Maine Law men in the House astonished by the appearance of Mr. Knowlton's substitute for the Assembly's Liquor Bill, which had been reached in the general file is committee of the whole.-There was a free fight for a few minutes, Mr. Hull charging the Maine Law men with bad faith in bringing up this question again, and several of the atter expressing their willingness to let the mater drop. A motion to strike out all after the enacting clause flually carried; and the Committee went along with other bills till the Milwaukes & Fond du Lac Air Line Railread bill was reached, when Mr. Hadley took the floor, and offered various amendments, contemplating an additional number of Directors, so as to give Milwaukee a voice in the management of things; but desiring to kill the bill if possible, on the ground of its in terference with existing chartered rights. The friands of the bill—Oabkoah and Fond du Lac men -on the other hand, claimed that they had been sold out by those to whom the air line charter had been given last winter, and now promised to take hold and build the road, having the control themselves. Mr. Hadley fought a hard fight, bu it was of no use, and the bill was carried in comsittee, reported back, ordered to a 3d reading the rules suspended and the bill passed-43 to 22 It goes back to the Senate for concurrence in amendments.

The House taking up the Liquor bill, concurre n striking out all after the enacting clause, when Mr. Knowiton offered his substitute for insertion ereunder. Mr. Hull, who was in the chair, immediately called Mr. Hale to take his place, and -"Let's have a dance"—and proclaiming the no-time to report, but the argument was that intention of the 25 opponents of the bill to sit it out moved a call of the House, remarking as he did it till Monday morning if necessary, and stop all other business, unless the substitute bill was withdrawn. And so motions for adjournment, for calls of the House, -- suspension of proceedings under the call,-reconsiderations,--paper balls,broad and narrow, sharp and flat jokes-indignaintion, &c., &c., flew about the House for Kths of an hour, when Mr. Knowlton-remarking that he was sorry that members were determined to wear themselves out by friction, when poor human nature was weak at the best, and would wear out soon enough".—withdrew the substitute and the storm subsided.

The bill appropriating $10,000 for contingen expenses of the state was passed. Senate has done a great many things to-day, but one cant be in both houses at once. A great portion of its time was spent on the House Tex Bill, which was finally tabled,

I am informed that Mr. Marriner, who is men tioned in the Report of the Select Committee on be Canal Land Morigages, was not at that time parties in the firm of Coon, James and Marriner, and that there was no such firm. I believe that he was a clerk in the office of Coon and James, and afterwards a partner in the firm of James and Marriper; The other firm was Coon and Hunter. Mr Hunter being new the Senator and, it is rumored, to be the Governor's Private Secretary, the salary having been raised to $1000, stealings excluded.

In Assembly this morning, the committee of laims reported favorably on several old claims, but the House rejected one, and refused to suspend the rules so as to consider the others. Among them was a bill for stationery in 1840, Messages from the Senate were taken up, and undry bills attended to; among them the fol-

Railroad and Plank road law bill. Senate had eft out telegraph Companies and raised the tax from 1/2 to 1 per cont. After various motions to amend the Senaie's amendments, these last were finally agreed to without alteration. Organizing State Board of Equalization—pass-

Senate's amendments to Calamine R. R. bill were agreed to. The Emigrant Agency bill came back, and was talked and voted at till a Philadelphia lawyer could not tell what condition it was in, when it want back to the Senate, with the pleasant consciousness on the part of a majority of the members that they had been sold and tricked by the speaker, who is a candidate for the office, and induced to vote the continuance, when they intended to repeal the Agency. Getting back to the Senate, the bill was referred to a good select committee, in order to learn just what the Assembly's action was. Assembly agreed with Senate in calling the ow office in the treasury-room Assistant instead of Deputy.

Bill appropriating $1000 as a year's salary of he Librarian, was passed. Capital Punishment bill came up, but wa laid aside, eliciting debate.

Mr. Konwlton, from select committee, reported in favor of the Senate bill paying the Impeachnent Senators $2.50 each. Charter of Columbus and Fullon R. R. Co. and

Of the above, the bill of E. H. Janssen was, as State Treasurer, for taking charge of sundry matters under the Banking Law; those of Messrs Scott and Whedon for expenses of contesting their seats as members; that of Henry Brown was the amount struck out from his bill by the State Prison Committee, and was defended by Messrs. Orton, Donaldson and Knowlton; that of Mesars-Hull, King & Co., Booth and Clement for papers furnished members at the June session last year, which they forgot to pay for.

On the bill to establish the office of Assistant State Supit, there was a rich debate, which I have asmuch as all the salaries of the other officers had been "doubled up," this Bureso, which works as hard as any of them, should not be neglected. the Assembly also passed the following bills:

The Reform Club Dinner to Sir Charles

In the House of Commons on the 13th, Mr. French inquired of Sir J. Graham whether it was true, as reported in the newspaper accounts of the late dinner at the Reform Club, that he had given Sir C. Marker power to declare war immediately upon entering the Baltic; and if so, by what authority that power was delegated to a Eritleh Admiral, and when was it to be acted upon? Sir J. Granam was induced solely by his res-

Sir J. Graham was induced solely by his respect for the House to answer a question whose propriety might justly be disputed. He had, indeed hoped that when the fleet entered the Baltic the Commander would be able at once to issue a declaration of war. Hitherto, however, there had been no orders given to the fleet to enter the Baltic, nor any authority given to declare war.

Mr. Battern, having moved the adjournment of the House as a point of form, charged Sir J. Graham, Lord Palmerston, and Sir W. Molesworth, with reckless levity, on account of the speeches which they had uttered at the Reform Olnb dinner, and which he thought atterly inconsistent with the gravity and responsibility of their positions as Cabinet Ministers.

Lord Palmerston expressed the most perfect indifference for any opinion that the sampler for Manchester might form of his conduct, whether yubic or private.

Sir T. Herbert, alluding to another expression attributed to Sir J. Graham, asked whether he ntifibuted to Sir J. Graham, asked whether he had at the dinner in question observed—"We, as reformers, may be proud that the honor of the British flag in the Euzine and the Ballic is entrusted to two such champions as Admiral Dundas and Sir C. Napier?"

Sir J. Graham admitted the correctness of the

Sir J. Gashan admitted the correctness of the report, and saw no reason to regret or retract the expression. The important commands alluded to, had doubtless been given from no political considerations; but it was a matter on which reformers might inin congratulate themselves that two approved champions of reform were found worthy of holding them.

Sir W. Molesworth, retorted the charge brought against him by Mr. Bright, whom he accused, in turn, of narrow minded prejudice. Mr. Distaell tideuled the expressions with which so much grave foult had been found, and remarked upon their harmless character, if properly valued. Even if orders to declare war had been given to Sir C. Napier, it was known, he observed, that the gallant Admiral never obeyed orders, and might, therefore, he expected to preserve peace. And if the two commanders were called Reformers, it appeared that Reformers now meant those who did not reform, and the characteristics.

against the Can. They were like other invectives uttered a year ago against another Emperor, and might result, as in his case, in their object

Mr. Spoones believed that the country generally would endorse Mr. Bassur's judgment respecing the Reform Olub dinner. He considered that war was a solemn duty, which should be inaugurated not with banquets, but with fasting and humillation, and trusted that the Government would obtain the royal command to have some day set apart for a national testimony to that opinion. apart for a national testimony to that opinion.

Mr. Cosney replied to Sir W. Molesworth, i defence of the member for Manchester, and d to what he considered inconsiste Right Hon. Baronet's conduct, before and after he pecame a Cabinet Minister.

The discussion, which had throughout borne a personal character, then ceased.

The Czar's reply could not arrive from St. etersburgh till the 16th or 18th of March.
In the House of Commons Mr. Milner Gibson In the House of Commons Mr. Milner Gioson had moved an address praying that in the event of a war, Her Majesty would give directions to abstain from interiering with neutral flags, not covering contraband munitions of war. He also suggested the policy of entering into a similar treaty with the United States and other countries.

The Paris correspondent of The Morning Chronicle states that at a Council of Ministers dispatches from the French Envoy in London were read, in which the envoy stated that the English Cabinet is not disposed to look upon the propositions made by Prussis for the resumption of negotiations between the Western powers, for, Russia, as serious, or likely to lead to a pacific solution, and therefore, thinks there is no occasion for the two Cabinets to occupy themselves with the proposition. The English Government declares that the only thing to be done at present is to hasten the embarkation of troops for Constantinople, and dispatch a third squadron to the Baltic. The opinions of the English Cabinet were folly approved of by France.

The case of the State vs. John Telner for assault and battery upon James G. Massweiler was settled, costs paid by the parties.

A warrant was issued against Mary Doe (alias) for attempts to break the peace, and making threats of violence against one Haley, on the 1st of April.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- A boy named Julious

Scharf was arrested and brought up by Constable Fisher on a warrant charging him with assault and battery upon Peter Wefelt on the 2d of April The complainant stated that he was in the bar room of the Milwaukee Garden ou Sunday, when the defendant remarked there was a countryman and defendant and others pitched on him, defecatching him by the throat; he had some difficulty in getting away from him, and that he had given the defendant no provocation for the assault. A witness was called for the complainan who stated he was present and saw the whole o the trouble, but didn't see the defendant take hold of the complainant, and didn't believe it. could have been done without his seeing it, as there was only one chair between complainant and him-he heard complainant challenge deft. to fight, and deft. stated he would not fight him for he was too weak for him. The court discharged the defendant, and afterwards remarked that h could'nt convict a man, upon the testimony of a complainant who had sworn that he had given no provocation or had any previous difficulty, whe t was shown by his own witness that he had challenged him to fight, and the defendant had efused to fight. (Who will say that in a case like the above the Police Justice should not have the power to make a complainant pay the costs? Why should the costs, in a case like this, he saddled upon the tax payers of the county?) A VIRAGO IN TROUBLE .- A woman, named Ellen Flynn, who has figured largely in the Police Court, at "diverse times," was brought down from jail, by Constable Kessler to be examined for threatening and making attempts to break the peace. This is the woman who on a former occasion imposed upon the court and got a light sentence by stating she had three children and how the darlints would suffer if she was put in prison, and afterwards boasted how she had come on the auld justice. She has been frequently in jail and for other causes besides assault and battery. The case was put over till this morning, on the application of Mr. Doran who made : strong appeal to the court, stating that the defendent was making preparation to leave for Chica go, (we wish the city of "cut offs," luck with her) and that the ends of justice would be met if the case was put over for a day or two, and the the city would be then rid of her. The court left the case open so that if the defendant does not leave, she may be arrested again and put in jail after the time of the adjournment. The defendant was taken back to jail and will be brought down this morning.

EFFECTS OF DRUNEENNESS.-A man named John Folty, a men who stated he was sixtu-nine years of age, was brought down from jail by constable Ryan, where he had been confined since and children. The defendant was examined on a complaint made on the 3d day of March, and which had been held over here since that time -The evidence as detailed by the wife and daugh ter, showed the desperate character of the defer dant when drunk On several occasions he would attack the whole of his family, beating them with any thing he could lay his hands on. On one occasion he had nearly killed his daughter, a girl of fourteen, breaking 3 dishes on her head, ther striking her with a broom stick, and, as she was escaping from the door, took up the tongs and struck her senseless. Both mother and daughter stated that all defendant had to do was to keep from liquor, and he could live like a gentleman but their lives were in danger when he got drunk, which he did frequently, and they were compelled to complain of him. This is the third time he has been up in the Police Court for similar attacks on his family. He was required to give bail in the sum of $300 to keep the peace for 3 months. No bail was given; the defendant will have to lay in jail that time. A man named Henry, Heniser was arrested by constable Meloy; for violating the wood ordinance on the 1st of April: He will be examined this

The fact is becoming constantly more and more apparent that a railroad most be at once brift, connecting the mining regions of Lake Superior with the east. The copper, silver, and iron mores of that section are being developed in a most remarkable degree, and the preparations for rature mining are in a scale commensurate with the acticipated resources of the country. The completion of the Savit St. Marie canal will furnish an outlet during navigation, for freight, but for at least half of the year there is no ingress or egress to the mining region except by todious for at least half of the year there is no ingress or cresses to the mining region excert by indious cresisand journers by dog trains and snow shoes. Another trade, almost identical in interest with that of mining, is the lumbering business which a going on to an immense extent throughout the egion lying between Luke Superior and Lake Munebago, and fronting mostly on Green Bay. Though the facilities for shipment are the same for lumber as for ore, the supplies and travel incidental to its manufacture have mostly to go in winter by tedious overland routes.

One railroad, if properly located, will subserve both these interests, and command both their trade and travel; and to do this, it should start from some eligible point on Lake Superior, best adapted to the mining country, and ron north to Eny de Noquet, and along the shore of Green Bay, connecting at this point with the Lake Shore railroad, or with the Milwaukee and Green Bay road. Such a line would intersect all the great lumbering stations at Bay de Noquet, Maconnece, Peshetigo, Pensaukee, Oconto, Suamico, Green Bay and Depore; and by the Lake Shore road, with those of Kewsmane, Two Rivers, and Manitowoc. Heading in the copper regions, and running through the points we have designated, we cannot imagine a route in the western country which would be as valuable to the locality, or which would pay better dividends.—Green Bay which would pay better dividends.-Green Bay

TEE CROP .- Mr. S. B. Noble, one of the editors of the Michigan Farmer, writes relative to the wheat-fields which he has seen in his recent travels; that along the line of the Southern Railroad, in Laperte, St. Joseph and Elkhart counties in Indiana, and in St. Joseph, Branch. Hillsdale, and Lenawee counties in this State, the wheat is generally good, and looks very promising. In the counties of Indiana above named the farmers had generally commenced to plow. ing. In the counties of Indiana above named the farmers had generally commenced to plow.—
Through the entire line of counties on the Central Read, a portion of the wheat is killed; and a large eart now looks bad, though perhaps not seriously injured. In one of the fields which he ned examined the day before writing, he judged that full one third was winter-killed.

Reports corroborative of the above opinion have reached us from other sources; but it is still rather early to judge of the harm that has been done to the winter crops by the sevenity of the past season.— Detroit Advertiser, March 30.

With all the appliances bro't to bear upon the Legislature, the memorial passed penterday, could not have pessed without the amendment alluded to, which is similar to the one stolen in 1852, except that it goes still further, and restricts sales of lands so granted, to actual setters, and in limited quantities.
